

Mentor Motivation Checklist

For each item below, check yes if the reason listed reflects your motivation for mentoring and no if it does not. For each item, list a concrete example to illustrate your answer.

Mentoring Motivation Checklist	Yes	No	Example
I have specific knowledge that I want to pass onto others.
I find that helping others learn is personally rewarding to me.
I enjoy collaborative learning.
I find that working with others who are different from me is energizing.
I am always looking for new opportunities to further my own growth and development.
I am always looking for new opportunities to further my own growth and development
I want to see this person succeed.
I am seeking an opportunity to enhance my visibility, reputation, and contribution to my organization or community.
I am committed to leadership succession.
I want to pay it forward.			